

Influenza A/B & RSV Multiplex: Dec/Jan 2018

Respiratory Virus Multiplex PCR: Dec/Jan 2018

January findings	Influenza A/B & RSV Multiplex PCR	Respiratory Virus Multiplex PCR
	Influenza A activity remains low with 2% of specimens testing positive in January. Influenza B activity remains low with 7% of specimens testing positive in January. RSV activity remains low with 4% of specimens testing positive in January.	The most frequently detected viruses were rhinovirus (22%), adenovirus (13%) and enterovirus (6%). Enterovirus activity has decreased from 10% to 6% of specimens testing positive in December and January respectively. RSV activity remains low with 4.8% of specimens testing positive in January.